Hi Katie,

As we discussed, attached is a copy of Sterigenics' latest Title V permit. Here's the link where you can download Illinois' issued permits: <https://external.epa.illinois.gov/DocumentExplorer/Attributes>. Also, I've attached a document that I started working on to summarize the existing and proposed permit requirements.

FYI, I'm planning to be out of the office starting this Friday until July 9. If you have additional questions while I'm gone, please contact Danny or Genevieve.

David
